Designing Advanced Reports - Access 2010: The Missing Manual [Book] Chapter 11. Designing Advanced Reports. In the previous chapter, you learned to create simple reports—nicely formatted printouts that arrange information inside a single table. Simple reports are a great way to create a hard copy that has more polish than a datasheet printout. As you learned in the previous chapter, simple reports give you the fine-grained formatting you need to highlight important columns and values, and ...
