When you use `\hbox`, TeX will append it to the current list being built. If you are in horizontal mode (in a paragraph), TeX will append the `\hbox` to the horizontal list, making it a part of the current paragraph (that's what you want). But if you are in vertical mode, then TeX will append that `\hbox` to the current vertical list, more or less like it does for a line in a paragraph (that's what ...
